RE: REPLY TO GOVERNOR INSLEE RE LETTER
DATED APRIL 8, 2015 ON YOUR BEHALF FROM
NICHOLAS BROWN, ESQ, GENERAL COUNSEL

KILLING OF ANTONIO ZAMBRANO MONTES
FEBRUARY 10, 2015

Dear Governor Inslee:

It is unfortunate you lack the intestinal fortitude to take the necessary steps to replace the Franklin County Prosecutor with a special prosecutor in the cold blooded killing of the unarmed Mexican male, Antonio Zambrano Montes. You would be well advised to take lessons from law enforcement agency in South Carolina who did not hesitate to fire and file murder charges against the police officer who gunned down the defenseless African American male in the back earlier this week. <http://www.cnn.com/2015/04/08/us/south-carolina-officer-charged-with-murder/> The two incidents are quite similar. Yet, here in the State of Washington, your office simply chooses to look the other way.

I believe the Hispanic community is extremely disappointed with your decision. It was not that long ago when you were a relatively young trial attorney building your coffers with necessary funds to launch your political career in the Yakima Valley. If you recall, you made hundreds of thousands of dollars if not millions representing injured and wrongfully killed Hispanic plaintiffs to your financial gain. Now, when the Hispanic community turns to you for help, you look the other way. Shame on you.

Sincerely,

THE TREJO LAW FIRM
